JNO. FEEHEY, W. M.

Kicked Him Down Stairs.

Rev. R. D. Bivens is pastor of the Northern Methodist Church at Nicholasville. Some ugly rumors concerning the pastor and a married woman of the city were afloat and the church appointed a committee to investigate the matter. The committee called on the pastor and the latter promptly kicked the leader down stairs, for which he was fined five dollars and costs in police court.

Jury Disagreed.

In the trial of Frank Smith, accused of stealing a diamond from Mr. Victor Bogaert's jewelry store, in Lexington, the jury could not agree, and was discharged. The jury stood eleven for conviction and one for acquittal, the odd man being Mr. Russell Wilson. Smith was remanded to the custody of the jailer to await another trial.

Smith is the man who was arrested here on Carnival Day on the charge of being a pickpocket. He was fined for disorderly conduct and endeavored to pawn the diamond ring to raise money to pay his fine.

Do You Drink Beer?

If so, you should drink the best. D. D. Connors, at the Hotel Fordham, is agent in Paris for the celebrated Annheuser-Busch beer, of St. Louis, which is pronounced by experts to be the purest and best beer made. There is no finer summer beverage, and for the sick and convalescent it is invaluable. Try a case of it and you will never be without it afterward.

Stop Borrowing Your Neighbor's Paper.

A lady came into The News office Tuesday and laying a dollar bill down on the table said: "Will you please send The News for six months to Mrs. I am tired of having her borrowing mine before I get a chance to read it myself."

There are a large number of families in Paris who are in the habit of borrowing their neighbor's paper, and it is a source of great inconvenience to those who believe in paying for what they get. If there is a family in Paris who really cannot afford to pay for the paper, upon application at this office The News will be left at their residence for one year free. We make this offer to protect our regular subscribers.

Praised Unintentionally.

[Richmond Pentagraph.] According to the reports of all the members of the Richmond lodge, A. O. U. W., who attended the Carnival given Wednesday at Paris, there was never anything like it before, in a town of that size. Of the visiting delegations, and there were a number of which, Richmond's was the largest. From the moment of their arrival until their departure there was nothing lacking that such an entertainment could provide for the edification of visitors. Elks, Odd Fellows, Masons and Red Men turned out to meet at the station the incoming delegations, and with one another in genial hospitality. A days round of pleasure was closed with a banquet to the A. O. U. W., after which our lodge members bade their brothers a regretful good-bye, but with warm assurances of the welcome that awaits them at the fair here in July.

GEO. H. CROSDALE will transfer his restaurant, about June 24th, to the Varden property immediately opposite his present place of business. It is his intention to make his new quarters superior in every way to the old, and every attention and courtesy will be given all patrons of the establishment.

Wedding At the Fordham.

At the Fordham Hotel on Wednesday, Mr. T. N. Wood and Miss Nannie Ockerman, of Sharpburg, were united in marriage by the Rev. F. J. Cheek, of this city. They were accompanied by Mr. Jno. Reed and Miss Myrtle Ockerman, of Nicholas county. Landlord Connors acted as best man. It is hinted that Mr. Connors insists on acting as best man at all the weddings which occur at the Fordham, and that he is quietly taking pointers which will come in handy at his own nuptials, which, it is said, will occur in the near future.

Good Roads Convention.

Complete arrangements have been made for the Good Roads State Convention to be held in Louisville, June 27 and 28. As Gov. Beckham, by proclamation, has asked the County Judges and Mayors to appoint delegates, a very large attendance is expected. All the railroads within 200 miles of Louisville will give a one-fare rate to the convention so the trip can be made at the least expense. The conventions held elsewhere in the South have drawn large crowds, in addition to the delegates. One of the interesting features of the convention will be the exhibition of road-making machinery. There are eight carloads of these tools, and they will be handled by experts. The use of oil to lay dust will be illustrated by practical tests, and the proper kind of drain pipes shown.

The subject of good roads is the most important one the people of Kentucky, or of any other State, can consider. Good roads will add immensely to the value of farming property, as it will make the markets easily accessible to farm and garden products, and by increasing the facilities and comfort of life in the country, will lead to large purchases of lands.

Kentucky has some of the finest turnpikes in the world, but President Moore, of the National Good Roads Association, says he has not seen a modern dirt road in the State.

Mrs. Kearns Withdraws From the Race.

The friends of Mrs. Kearns, who was one of the principal contestants for the house and lot offered by the Lexington Herald in their voting contest, having learned that large numbers of copies of the Herald were being purchased by wealthy friends of one of the other contestants, decided to withdraw the name of Mrs. Kearns from the race and to use the funds on hand as a nucleus for a fund to purchase a house and lot for Mrs. Kearns. Mr. T. B. Satterwhite, of Lexington, will receive any contributions sent him, and it is hoped there will be a generous response.

Red Men to Celebrate.

Encouraged by their success in the A. O. U. W. parade on the 12th, Maumee Tribe of this city last night appointed a committee to arrange for a big Indian celebration this fall. It will be in the nature of a picnic, and will comprise a parade, a mammoth barbecue, games of all kinds, races and a reproduction of all Indian customs. Every Red Men's lodge in the reservation of Kentucky will be invited to participate.

You Do, or You Don't Need Gasses :

The eye being a rather delicate organ, great care should be exercised in the selection of proper glasses. Many believe that glasses should be restored to only when the sight becomes so defective as not to be able to do without. This is a great mistake which must be combated. Whenever there is unmistakable evidence of the need of their aid, they should be used. A neglect of this rule sometimes produces mischief which results in serious trouble if the course be persisted in. Our Dr. C. H. Bowen having just returned from taking a special course in Optics from one of the best specialists in New York, is prepared to do the best of work, having the latest improved methods of fitting.

Examinations free. Next visit Thursday, June 27, 1901.
